ABOUT REORGANIZATION.

Mr. Untermyer took up the reorganization of the Shipbuilding Company last May and the manner in which Mr. Nixon's consent to the Morgan and No. 690 Pacific street. Schwab plan was obtained. Q. On May 17 you wrote to Mr. Pam, telling him that you would not consent to the reorganization plan? A. Yes. "Then after a conference with Mr. Schwab you were won over?" asked

"I was an amateur in this business of organizing and reorganizing companies." said Mr. Nixon. Q. Mr. Nixon, you received by the underwriting agreement $100,000 worth of bonds and $25,000 of both kinds of stock, did you not? A. Yes. Q. Now, is it not a fact that Mr. Schwab wrote to Mr. Hoadly, who was negorating for you with Mr. Schwab, and offered to buy $100,000 worth of Londs and $25,000 of each kind of stock if you would consent to agree to the reorgan's ation plan? A. Yes.

Q. You knew that the stocks and bonds you held and which Mr. Schwab offered to buy were greatly depreciated? A. Yes

Here Mr. Guthrie flared up and said, in a sneering tone: "You are evidently trying to impeach and besmirch your witness by showing that he was persuaded to consent to the reorganization by the bribe offered by Mr termyer, "but this evidence should tend to impeach and besmirch Mr. Schwab as showing that as a bribe to get Mr. Nixon to consent to the reorganization plan he offered to take the depreciated bonds and stock off Mr. Nixon's hands through his friend Mr. Hondly. What- would live with him and take care of ever impeaching and beamirching there is will not fall upon Mr.

Mr. Untermyer then read the letter of Mr. Schwab characterized as the the sealed papers in the Hall divorce

IXON GIVES CONSENT.

Mr. Untermyer then brought out that, after considerable dickering with Schwab, Mr. Nixon consented to the reorganization.

"Now, Mr. Nixon," said Mr. Untermyer, "I want you to explain your tin this transaction."

Then, after a cross fire between Mr. Guthrie and Mr. Untermyer, Mr. Nixon explained that he had turned over his bonds and stock to Mr. Hoadly, who had advanced him money on them.

' I don't know what was done with them directly after Mr. Hoadly took

In addition to the letter from Mr. Schwab offering to buy the stock held by Mr. Nixon, several other remarkable letters were brought out in the testimony. The first one was written by Nixon to Max Pam before Schwab's offer was made. It is dated May 17 and reads: Dear Sir-Referring to the suggested plan of reorganization of the United States Shipbuilding Company, as outlined by you to me yesterday morning, I beg to say that, after careful study and conference, I cannot see my way clear to approve of the plan.

I think it best for you to advise those who have been acting with you of this decision. Yours truly, LEWIS NIXON.

Other letters are as follows:

New York, May 26, 1903.

Mr. Joseph H. Hoadley, New York, N. Y. Dear Sir-Providing the United States Shipbuilding Company reorganization is perfected, I hereby guarantee to pay to your order $40,000, amount of payment which has been made to the Sheldon syndicate on a subscription of $199,000 made by Lewis Nixon. I also agree to have said subscrip don placed to my account and guarantee to have a complete release issued to said Nixon by said Sheldon syndicate.

LETTER FROM HOADLY.

Another letter was given out by Mr. Nixon because of the appearance of the strange circumstances surrounding his sudden change of front in the mtater of reorganizing the company. It was written by Joseph H. Hoadley and reads in part

"I have sent you copies of the correspondence had between Mr. Schwab and myself, which took place at the time I was endeavoring to arrive at an Bertha Seltzer, who asked to have Mrs. amicable understanding with him, as to whether he would pay his assessment on the controlling exchange of stock he told me he held. You understand that all of my propositions to Mr. Schwab were based on the condition that Mr. Schwab would take charge of the financial operation of the deal. and even now if you could disentangle this matter and allow your stockholders a right to go in on the reorganization by paying a small assessment I would have my associates join you and furnish the $1,000,000 cash that you would require under your original plan of reorganization, always assuming, of course, that Mr. Sheldon will stay in the saddle and attend to the financial end of the new corporation.

P. gan & Co., by which Morgan & Co., assuming to own 299,999 shares of 300,000 of the Bethlehem Company, were to sell them to Nixon and resser, Mr. Schwab, the real owner of the stock, loaning the money to and Dresser with which to buy his own stock.

Q Is it not true that for the simple loaning to you and Mr. - resser of 77.846.671 with which to purchase his own stock he got as interest and $10,000,000 in bonds and $15,000,000 in stock of the United States pullding Company? A. Yes.

r. Schwab's personal profit on the little loan was merely $26,000,000.

Panic in Tenements.

The fire created a panic in the big fivestory tenements on three sides of the burning stable. Disorder and accident were averted by the police reserves from the West Forty-seventh street station under Sergt. Kuhne, who sent his men into the building and prevented crushing and pushing on the stairways.

The flames spread to the flathouse at No. 408 West Fifty-third street, from which a Mrs. Beattle and a Mrs. Hil-kenney escaped in their night clothes. The janitor, Joseph Jury, after ringing all the bells in the house to arouse the enants, went to the fourth floor and carried down a crippled daughter of PROTECTION.

This is the season of the year when Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work. Fortifying the system against the ravages of winter is one of the most effective uses of Scott's Emulsion; it builds up the strength of the whole body and puts one in a healthy, vigorous condition.

Weak lungs, throat troubles or bronchial affections get more positive help and relief from Scott's Emulsion than from any other

Cod fiver oil is very scarce now; cheap adulterations and mixtures of inferior oils are offered everywhere. This is why Scott's Emulsion should be insisted upon. It never varies from the high quality and absolute purity that has made it the standard for thirty years.

A Very Forward Step in Clothes-Making. Our "Concave" Shoulder.

Our designers, one day about two years ago, produced a remarkably handsome coat. It was the last one of a series of experiments. The idea was to produce a perfect shoulder. It might have taken a good many years more to attain the end we aimed for—but it didn't. This shoulder was a revelation and an improvement in clothes - making that wasn't expected to come for years. That coat established a new standard; it is the model every one of our tailors must keep in their minds when making our coats. Each and every garment must be individually perfect—must have our "Concave" Shoulder and "Closefitting" Collar, whether it is a garment to sell for $12.50 or for $50.
